

Junior Achievement Teacher of the Year
10/03/2007
Arizona Republic - Online

Connolly educator earns teacher-of-year award

Connolly Middle School sixth-grade math teacher Cheryl Aidikonis was named the Junior Achievement Arizona Teacher of the Year. She was chosen from the 2,000 Valley teachers that work with Junior Achievement. She was honored for helping students understand the connection between school and their future quality of life. She also coaches Junior Achievement volunteers and teaches young people how to succeed in a global economy. She was honored at a luncheon last week.

Information: <http://www.jaaz.org>.