Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 - The endowment funds are to be used to support the programs of Junior Achievement of Arizona, Inc.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - The Organization is exempt from federal and state income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 43-1201(4) of the Arizona Revised Statutes. However, the Organization remains subject to income taxes on any net income that is derived from a trade or business, regularly carried on and not in furtherance of the purpose for which it was granted exemption. The Organization utilizes the provisions of FASC 740-10, which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. Based on the Organization's evaluation of the June 30, 2016 through 2019 income tax returns and positions expected to be taken in the June 30, 2020 income tax returns, the Organization did not engage in activities or take uncertain tax positions that would jeopardize its tax-exempt status, or generate unrelated business income, which would be subject to taxation. In the event the Organization is assessed interest or penalties by major tax jurisdictions, it will be included in the provision for income taxes in the combined financial statements.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 - The Organization has a Board of Trustees made up of independent members who decide how much to distribute to Junior Achievement of Arizona, Inc., the supported organization. Most funds support general programs, however some are designated for scholarship recipients. Additionally, there are restricted endowments, the earnings on which support general programs and a scholarship recipient. The general program support is transferred within the related accounts of this organization and its supported organization. The scholarship funds are also transferred to the supported organization where they wait until a recipient is selected. In the Fall, scholarship applications are emailed to all of JA's partnering high school teachers and the link is included on our JA website. Students have the fall and spring semester up until the specified April deadline to submit all mandatory documentation. After the April deadline, a scholarship committee is selected to review all applications and essays utilizing the scoring matrix provided. The top three candidates are then selected and the winning applicants are notified via email. Select winners must provide all required paperwork prior to the funds being paid out to the schools they are attending. The supporting organization then disburses the funds in accordance with the recipient's instructions. Disbursements for general program support are monitored for receipt by Junior Achievement of Arizona, Inc. and used where needed to provide programs to K-12 students.
